

Title: Operationalizing psychic militancy in the clinical space

This workshop will be a clinical and experiential workshop designed to create a space where clinicians can theorized, discuss and practice how we might operationalize psychic militancy in service of liberatory clinical practice. The workshop will be discussed based and include clinical examples to aid in reskilling ourselves against the intrusive carceral discipline of the field.